

East Cobb Quilters' Guild, Inc. collects members' names, mailing addresses, phone numbers, and e-mail addresses for purposes of maintaining an accurate membership roster, sending electronic and/or print materials such as Guild newsletters, upcoming events notices, meeting alerts, and other information pertinent to Guild business.

This information is for Guild purposes only as stated in § 1.6 of the Guild bylaws. In compliance with this provision, East Cobb Quilters' Guild, Inc. does not sell or disseminate any member information to outside organizations and makes every effort to protect the electronic files containing this information.

East Cobb Quilters' Guild, Inc. members, event participants, and/or official designees may capture images of event participants and/or their quilted item(s), either in still or moving format, at ECQG-hosted or sponsored events. These images may be published in any format. East Cobb Quilters' Guild, Inc. may also publish the participant's name and city of residence.